Drive Me Loco is the authority on travel by car to Costa Rica, there is romance in the road less-graveled. Washington Post I laughed a lot while reading the guide and the updated info on this site gets better and better Jayne Tuggle The Gingo s Guide To Driving Through Mexico and Central America is an eBook combining 35 years of experience offering the reader expert recommendations from real life (yes, I ve done it several times) information on driving your vehicle through Mexico and Central America. We detail, in an easy-to-read format, all the information necessary for a trip by vehicle through Mexico and Central America. We chronicle a trip by car through Mexico, Baja, Honduras, Guatemala, Nicaragua, and Costa Rica. We also include information on Belize, El Salvador, and Panama and South America. Gringo s Guide will get you to where you want to go in Mexico and Central America with an expanded Costa Rica section---the jewel of Central America. If you are even thinking about taking this trip you got to read this guide! The Drive The drive through Mexico and Central America is a wonderful experience, however, it s not an adventure for everyone. What type of person would like this sort of trip? First and foremost, you go to like to drive---if the open road turns you on then this is a great trip for you. Even through you could rush the trip, ideally it is better to have an open agenda tat isn t too pressured by time. You don t need tons of money but you should have a nice money reserve for emergencies and potential car issues. Places and conditions change, thus be prepared...
