Believe Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. LORD OF ALL - WHY TWELVE COMMUNITY LEADERS CAME TOGETHER In these times of deep division in our country, it is a breath of fresh air to see 12 Christian leaders from a broad range of racial, ethnic, socio-economic, and denominational backgrounds coming together in unity to share their faith and their personal stories of salvation through Jesus Christ. We know that Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. once said that the most segregated hour of the week in America is the 11 o'clock hour on Sunday morning, referencing the lack of unity of the Body of Christ when it comes to worshipping together. Yet in this book, Lord of All, these twelve leaders stand together in unity and proclaim that Jesus is the Lord of All - He is the Jesus of ALL people and he brings all people together. America needs to know there is unity in Jesus and listening to the stories of these believers from so many different backgrounds, who live in one geographical location, will hopefully stir communities across the nation to come together in the same way - to worship together, to fellowship together, and to live life together, to the glory of God. Here are some excerpts from the book: Mike Minter, Entering God's Kingdom I confessed my need for Christ alone to save me and give me everlasting life. My entire world was turned upside down. This was not some short-term emotional experience. The whole direction of my life had taken a U turn. Pat Ware, Seasons of My Life I was tired of the struggle, of reaching for acceptance through worldly achievements. I wanted to know that Jesus knew me, heard my cries, understood my pain,...
