A new, exciting life awaits mischievous Sam Davenport after he and his family move to Arizona from Alaska. But now Sam s only friends are his dog, a kind old neighbor, and Bucket, a mule that Sam acquires in a most extraordinary way. Sam gets into lots of trouble, but through some exciting adventures with Bucket, he learns many lessons and proves - at last - that he can be responsible for both his actions and his mule. Shirley Johnson, Senior Reviewer for MidWest Book Review has this to say: All in all this book is a winner. It has warmth, a great storyline, wonderful characters, and a top-notch ending. I highly recommend it.
