

Jackie Potatoes (Paperback)

By Steve Moran

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Jackie lives with her parents above the baked-potato restaurant they run, which is why she has the nickname, Jackie Potatoes. Her friends like to meet up in her kitchen where they chat, bake cakes, and help with the washing up. Life is perfect until the day the letters start arriving. Multi-national organisations and government agencies all seem determined to destroy the peaceful way of life that Jackie, her parents and friends have built around the restaurant. No-one seems to be able to stop them, until Jackie starts to have some amazing ideas. This is a story about a group of friends who struggle against enormous odds to save the village they love from certain destruction. And who is their leader, their guide and their inspiration? Why, Jackie Potatoes, of course!.
