An Address Before the Liberia Union Agricultural Enterprise Co (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Edward S Morris

Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from An Address Before the Liberia Union Agricultural Enterprise Co When coffee became somewhat a necessary of life in Europe, all the European powers which had colonies between the tropics endeavored to form plantations of coffee trees therein. The Dutch were the first who transported the coffee plant from Mocha to Batavia, and from Batavia to Amsterdam. An English merchant from Constantinople first introduced coffee to the Londoners. Cromwell attempted to suppress the use of this beverage in England, and caused the London coffee houses to be closed. Before the 18th century all the coffee consumed in Europe was brought from Arabia Felix, by the way of the Levant, and the Turkish government imposed heavy transit duties which the vessels of Holland, England and France at length avoided by sailing around the Cape of Good Hope.
