Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Richard Gawthorpe (illustrator). 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Kulwant is a girl who was born and reared in the Punjab, India. From being a young child, she has a recurring dream about the man that she will one day marry in the Sikh tradition. She is an only child and has a very happy upbringing until tragedy strikes the family and her father loses a leg in a landmine explosion. From there it is downhill for the family. Experience the trials and tribulations as Kulwant grows up into a beautiful woman and searches for the man of her dreams. She attracts suitors from all over India and after eventually reducing her offers of marriage to four, she sets the suitors a task and chooses her husband as a result. One suitor is the most handsome man in the whole of India, the second suitor is the wealthiest and the third suitor is the most intelligent man in India. The fourth suitor is Hal; a poor, blind and uneducated beggar whose looks have been spoiled by a lifetime of poverty and simply trying to survive from one day to the next. Indian Dreams come true will appeal to any child over 8 years of age and any adult reader. Being set in the Punjab, it offers a taste to westerners of Indian traditions. I hope that it offers hope to all who wish to one day marry the man or woman of their dreams. Live in hope and hope shall live in you. Give your love freely and unconditionally and you will receive love in return. When you acknowledge your areas of ignorance, wisdom is your reward. Admit your wrongs at...
