AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 40 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 8.3in. x 0.2in. The book, The Secret Adventures of Prince Justin and the Dragon, takes readers on an exciting journey with Prince Justin, son of King Robert and Queen Christina, and C. J. his court dragon. The story begins when Prince Justin decides he must do something to change his life at the castle where he has no friends to talk to or play with. His loneliness leads him to make a decision, unknown to his father King Robert, to go into the magic forest of the Kingdom of Brookhavenshire to find some animals to be his friends. Winky, the Kings Court Wizard, whose job it is to keep Prince Justin safe, decides he must create a special spell to protect the Prince from the dangers of his journey. This spell gives Prince Justin and C. J. the ability to understand the sounds and language of each animal they encounter. The Prince and C. J. meet wonderful friends in the magic forest and return everyday to play with their best friend, a giant dragon named Big Ty. . All goes well until one day when Prince Justin and King Robert are riding their horses through the kingdom. As Prince Justin crosses a bridge over a large river, his horse is frightened and rears up. Prince Justin loses his balance and is thrown from his horse into the raging river below. There is only one creature in the forest big enough to enter the river and save the Prince. His friend Big Ty must reveal the Princes secret to save his life. Big Tys love for the Prince overcomes his fear of the King and the dangers to his own life. This item ships from multiple locations.
