AN ADDRESS DELIVERED ON REQUEST OF THE CONGREGATION (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from An Address Delivered on Request of the Congregation Members of the Congregation Temimi Derech, Brethren in Faith: Ladies and Gentlemen: Our form of worship permits that on the Sabbath Day, in addition to our stated prayers and services, we may give attention to important events affecting the community of which we form part. Our sages of blessed memory, well informed of human nature, knew that on all occasions the prayers of the pious do moderate joy and do assuage grief, and that the greatest rejoicings, as well as the most poignant sorrows, should be submitted to in thankfulness before our God's throne of mercy. Alas! that we should have occasion for an addition to our services to deplore the untimely loss, by violence, of the Chief Magistrate of the American people. Alas! that we should have to pray to God that in the history of the American people this may be forever the only time when national mourning shall be accompanied by national humiliation and national shame. Death is the inevitable termination of life, and cannot be avoided, but to the survivors the manner of death becomes either a source of mournful satisfaction or acute regret.
