Bloody Kharkov I (Paperback)

By Andrew McGregor

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . As the tide of war in Russia begins to turn, Leutnant Hausser returns with his depleted and demoralised squad.in the bitter snow, cold and ice that is becoming their home. The battle for survival continues.to Kharkov. With the final collapse of Stalingrad on the Volga River.the strained railheads along the southern Russian coast and to the immediate north fill with any available grim faced soldiers and equipment that can be spared. Hundreds of thousands of prisoners trudge into captivity, their starving and lice ridden bodies forced to march across exposed and bitter winter terrain towards prisoner of war camps.most will not return, dying en-route or in the inhospitable conditions of the Soviet gulags. The greatest defeat ever inflicted upon the German Wehrmacht has been completed, removing nearly 600,000 soldiers from the Axis order of battle. The loss of equipment and tanks has been immense, exceeding the entire production of the German Reich for a year. Russian casualties have proved even greater across the campaign.however Stalin is buoyant, pushing his commanders further, keen to see the collapse of the German southern wing...
