Excerpt from Western North Carolina Rail Road: The Extra Session of the Legislature; Governor Jarvis to the People of North Carolina I arrived in Washington on Thursday, and on that night the North Carolina delegation in Congress, accompanied by Gen. James Madison Leach and Col. F. E. Shober (one of the Board of Directors) had a consultation with me at the Metropolitan Hotel, at which Mr. Best and President Wilson were present. The proposition was read over and discussed, and two changes were suggested, making more explicit a portion that some of the delegation thought indefinite. The conference ended at a late hour, with the understanding that I was to have these changes properly made and inserted, and that another session would be held on the next night. I was engaged during the greater part of the next day (fri day) in drawing out with great care these proposed changes and in transposing some of the sections so as to make the proposition as explicit as possible. On Friday night these gentlemen again met me in conference, read over the proposition carefully, and addressed me letters approving it and recommending the convening of the Legislature in extra session to pass upon it.
