SOUTH AFRICAN SOCIAL ATTITUDES: THE 2ND REPORT - REFLECTIONS ON THE AGE OF HOPE

HSRC Press. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, South African Social Attitudes: The 2nd Report - Reflections on the Age of Hope, Benjamin Roberts, Mbithi Wa Kivilu, Yul Derek Davids, A country's attitudinal profile is as much a part of its social reality as are its demographic make-up, its culture and its distinctive social patterns. It helps to provide a nuanced picture of a country's circumstances, its continuities and changes, its democratic health, and how it feels to live there. It also helps to measure the country's progress towards the achievement of its economic, social and political goals, based on the measurement of both 'objective' and 'subjective' realities. Since the transition to democracy in 1994, South Africa has become a well documented nation. A multitude of national and sub-national studies have been conducted, yielding a wealth of information about the characteristics of South African society, and how these have evolved over time. However, less is known about how South Africans feel about their world and themselves. There remains much scope for deepening our understanding of the public's values, chronicling how these have been changing, and determining the extent to which different segments of the population vary in their attitudes and beliefs." South African Social Attitudes: Reflections on the Age of Hope" is the second in the "HSRC" series that aims to monitor the evolving dynamics of South African social values in relation to broader societal developments. It is based primarily on the findings of the 2004 and 2005 rounds of the South African Social Attitudes Survey (SASAS), which involved interviewing a nationally representative sample of more than 5000 individuals aged 16 years and older. Like the previous edition, this volume is structured according to three thematic sections. The first section on race, class and politics examines the public's views on issues such...
