Metaterra Publications, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Master diver and underwater treasure hunter, Tracee Raptis, brings us her third book in this series of riveting and disturbing - at times emotional, romantic, and sexy - at times shocking, terrifying, and chilling - novels exposing the darker side of the underwater treasure hunting and tropical island paradise worlds she knows so well. This third book in this RAPTIS TRILOGY, titled REDEMPTION, opens in California. Now our fearless heroine, Terri, is a lost and sinking single mother with a teenage daughter who cannot stand to see her once so brave and adventurous mother go downhill this way. What has happened to Terri? Terri's teenage daughter, Kendra, is secretly contacted by a man who says he is her long lost father, and who sends her a ticket to secretly visit him in the Caribbean on summer break. Terri discovers an email from her daughter saying something about don't tell my mother but I've been kidnapped which Terri at first believes is a hoax of some kind, then realizes this is what has happened to Kendra. Waking up from her self-pity stupor, now horrified, Terri sets out to go get her daughter back. Terri finds Kendra, and soon also herself, being held by a most bizarre man, a treasure hunting, drug dealing, slave trader. What next? Can Terri's old love, Mitch, help? Will Mitch's complex and risky plan to get rid of these dangerous men while saving Kendra, Terri, and himself succeed? Will all three, Terri, Kendra, and Mitch, survive this? What bizarre twists and turns will arise each step of the way? What new shocking information will Terri and then Mitch reveal? Stay tuned right through to the...
