Reviews

Complete guideline for publication fans. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Excerpt from The Pennsylvania Freedmen s Bulletin and American Freedman, Vol. 2: A Monthly Journal Devoted to the Promotion of Freedom, Industry, Education, and Christian Morality in the South; July, August, September and October, 1867 Robert P. Martin, Of Person County, North Carolina, presented himself at the Rooms Of the Pennsylvania Branch about two months ago, bringing as credentials a letter from the Rev. Thomas S. Malcolm, Of Philadelphia, and one from a late slaveholder, Mr. William Thaxton, Of his own neighborhood; also the minutes of an association of African Baptist churches, which organized in December last, in Person County. With this association Mr. Martin is connected, having under his charge three congregations. He came North for the purpose of collecting $500, which, with the same sum to be raised by his own people, will enable them to build churches and school-houses, wherein to worship and gather their children for education. The land on which these buildings are to be erected has been furnished by Mr. Thaxton. Mr. Martin also desired to Obtain the promise of support for two teachers among his people - one to be located at Roxboro , and another at Hillsboro .
