

Beast of the Heartland (Paperback)

By Lucius Shepard

Four Walls Eight Windows, United States, 1999. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The fiction of Lucius Shepard has more to do with Joseph Conrad than Isaac Asimov. Fascinated by deception and decay, and generally labeled a cyberpunk writer, his work transcends the limits of genre fiction. Beast of the Heartland contains seven tales that explore the darkside where science fiction meets horror. Headed by the award-winning Barnacle Bill the Spacer, a story of high-space mutiny, the book includes A Little Night Music, a gothic tale of insanity; All the Perfumes of Araby, where an adventurer in the Middle East links up with an ancient entity; Human History, a postapocalyptic chiller; Sports in America, a noir tale in the Chandler tradition; The Sun Spider, a mini space opera; and the title story -- an ingenious picture of a battered boxer on the decline.
