

Ghetto Flowers: The Early Years (Paperback)

By MR Francis O Lynn

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Ghetto Flowers The Early Years is the first installment of three novels (although each novel is a complete story). It is an entertaining story of inner city youth coming of age in the red brick row homes, asphalt and concrete jungle of South Philadelphia. The narrow streets, homes, and alleys form a complex, cultural maze of neighborhoods for kids to utilize in their struggle to survive. Ghetto Flowers illuminates the reality of the many challenges inner city youth face in their attempt to grow beyond cultural circumstances that threaten to hinder the discovery and unfolding of their innate potential. The Ghetto Flowers will amaze you with their ingenious resourcefulness, innocence, humor, and penchant for mischief. They possess delightful personalities and an insatiable hunger for adventure. The innocence of their youth commingles with the harsh and bizarre realities of the educational, religious and civil institutions that attempt to shape their lives, and they use their intelligence to develop street smarts to navigate their way through the transition from childhood into adolescence. Each chapter is a short story collectively woven into a...
