Redemption Press, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . I've been anxiously waiting a return to Caller s Spring to see how the Lord would continue to use the Reese family. Their journey of healing, hope and transformation was only just the beginning! Return to Caller s Spring not only illustrates the transformative power of what can happen when we turn the reins of our lives over to Jesus, but it also gives the reader a beautiful picture of faith, hope and peace when dealing with the inevitable storms of life. From beginning to end, this story has something for everyone. It s packed with the message of change through Christ and Cowboy Recovery, the power of possibility through sacrifice, and God s fingerprints are all over it! There s no doubt you will be inspired and challenged by the miracles happening when you Return to Caller s Spring! Ginny Warren Kemp, MS, LPC Licensed Professional Counselor Return to Caller s Spring has a unique way of intertwining the Gospel into a fiction family s life. The way the author can take everyday circumstances and put scriptures right in front of them is only a gift from God. The Gospel is evident throughout the entire book. Watching a vision of one become a reality for many through prayer and petition was incredibly thought provoking. I would recommend this book to anyone who enjoys Christian fiction and the western way of life. James Scott, Cowboy Pastor Greybull, WY If you re the kind of person who would rather see a sermon than hear one, you will enjoy reading about the Reeses. They are a sixth-generational Wyoming ranching family who own and operate Caller s Spring Ranch in Horse Creek. But more importantly...
