Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Sermons: Preached in Trinity Church, Upper Chelsea In presenting them with these reminiscences of his ministry, his intention is still the same, and the highest praise he covets is, that there should not be a sentence that is not entirely in unison with the revealed Word of God, and perfectly intelligible to the most uneducated of those, to whom it was his privilege originally to address it. To any thing beyond this, the present discourses have no claim; written as they were amidst the unceasing cares and harassing labors of a large parish, they contain as might be expected, no traces of finished composition, or of profound thought, or of originality of conception.
