

Abstracts of Parker County, Texas Pre-Emption Land Records, 1850-1858 (Paperback)

By Jerry Wright Jordan

Heritage Books, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Parker County lies just west of Ft. Worth in north central Texas in an area that was first settled in the 1840 s. Parker County was created in 1855 from parts of Milam, Robertson, and Denton Land Districts. The Surveyors of each of those land districts made copies of all the surveys in their offices that pertained to lands that were in the new county and sent them to the Parker County Surveyor who maintained the records from that point forward. The present volume contains abstracts of these and subsequent surveys, which take on special importance because of an early morning fire which swept through the county court house on May 13th, 1874 destroying all the deed, probate, and other court records of the previous nineteen years. Fortunately, a deputy surveyor was sleeping in the building at the time, and was able to rescue the survey records and escape the blaze. This important volume contains a brief historical introduction, a very welcome explanation of the many types of Texas land grants which were made, and detailed genealogical abstracts of the following survey...

READ ONLINE
[6.72 MB]

Reviews

Certainly, this is the finest job by any publisher. I was able to comprehend almost everything out of this published e ebook. You wont truly feel monotony at at any moment of the time (that's what catalogues are for concerning should you question me).

-- Graciela Emard

This type of ebook is every little thing and made me looking ahead of time and more. It is among the most amazing book i actually have read through. Its been designed in an exceptionally simple way in fact it is simply soon after i finished reading through this pdf in which actually transformed me, change the way i believe.

-- Dr. Ron Kovacek