The Monastery Treasure: Sam n Me(tm) Adventure Books: Told by Gramps (Paperback)

By Branton K Holmberg

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Monastery Treasure is the first of a series of mystery adventures taken from the memories of Gramps as he tells the Sam n Me tales. Gramps tells the story using the lingo of the old west and creates images you swear will take you into the adventure with them. Sam n Gramps start out as detectives working for the Pinkertons in Santa Fe, New Mexico and wind up setting up their own treasure hunting business. This first treasure hunt starts with Sam receiving a monastery record book that contains the secret to a treasure worth a king s ransom. Sam s Uncle Timothy found the record book years before and was never able to solve the secret to where the treasure was. Uncle Timothy promises Sam half of the treasure if he can find it. The story that surrounds that treasure hunt, and the treachery of the scoundrels involved, told through Gramps unique style of spinning a yarn. It will keep you feeling you are part of the story as he tells it. That s only the beginning. There are...
