FK. NOW WHAT? (PAPERBACK)

Return on Investment Corp., 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Our Worst Nightmare: World War III March 6, 2017: U.S. Strategic Command said North Korea launched four guided missiles from a launch site on North Korea's west coast near the border with China. The missiles flew 600 miles across the country before splashing into the Sea of Japan. The most disturbing factor in this exhibition, the Pentagon says North Korea's leader, Kim Jong-Un, is acting more irrationally and unpredictably than previously. When you consider two world leaders, half a world apart, sharing similar personality traits, both having the keys to their nuclear arsenals, we must be very afraid for the future of mankind. Trump is the catalyst that has ignited the silent majority into action. Many Americans whose feelings toward minorities and immigrants were dormant for years were jolted into reality by Trump's bigotry. Those who were content to remain silent and remain on the sidelines have found their voice. They will not stand idly by and tolerate Trump's acts of gross inhumanity. The surge of anti-Trump sentiment has produced millions of citizens who are new to politics but want their voices to be heard in efforts to blunt the Trump agenda and work against his re-election. The mid-term elections in 2018 are crucial to forming a beachhead against the prevailing political structure. Finding candidates, male and female, to fight the establishment will be challenging, but an absolute necessity. How do persons who were motivated to demonstrate convert those energies into political action? 1. You need a plan. 2. You need people to implement the plan. 3. You need to see it through to conclusion What is our candidates view on the National Debt? Electing members to Congress...
