Paperback. Condition: New. 237 pages. Dave was permanently in a state of distrust, not able to trust and not fully able to become a cynic. Like a bat, caught between two layers of a wall in a belfry. Neither within the building, nor without. - excerpt from book. The sense of loss and betrayal is familiar to all, but the journey to redemption will surprise you. David Dee was a bright young musician in London with a girlfriend, a day job and a band which was starting to go places. Seduced by a Brazilian beauty he suddenly finds himself a Pop Star in Rio de Janeiro with an album in the charts and a TV performance under his belt. Then it all starts to go wrong. His beautiful Rio girlfriends is not what she seems and losing it all, he begins an Odyssey which takes him from Rio, to the red-light district of Amsterdam, to Stockholm and on to Siberia in search of redemption. A modern tale in the classical tragic tradition, The Ice Boat attempts to map the sea of the human Id of one man. Buy Volume 1- get Volume 2 FREE (just keep receipt and email me).
