Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 120 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in.Excerpt from Rudiments of Musical KnowledgeThis little primer is intended as a text-book for candidates who may be preparing for one of the various paper-work examinations in rudimentary musical knowledge; or who may be desirous of being able to answer fluently the viva voce questions put by the examiners in practical subjects such as pianoforte and violin playing, singing, etc. The author has, therefore, deemed it advisable - for purposes of reference - to devote a separate chapter to the complete consideration of each special branch of information such as pitch-names and places, sharps and flats, rests, time-duration, scales, etc. , etc. ; instead of grading and combining these different subjects into so many progressive lessons. In dealing with very young pupils, a skilful teacher will know quite easily how much of any particular chapter can be omitted at first, and be afterwards studied as the need for this additional knowledge makes itself felt.
