This book will never be straightforward to start on looking at but extremely exciting to read. I actually have read through and that i am sure that i am going to gonna go through once more again in the future. I am happy to explain how this is the very best book i have read through in my individual lifestyle and may be he best publication for at any time.

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 104 pages. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)45578704 Subject: National parks and reserves -- United States -- Management. Excerpt: . . . end will be the first among millions of travelers expected this summer. They will be among the first this summer to find what the GAO office has found: substandard lodging that fails to provide some of the most basic comforts. In Sequoia and Kings Canyon National Park, set in the towering Sierra Nevada Mountains and covered by groves of giant Sequoias which have stood for thousands of years, this beauty stands in stark contrast to many of the facilities provided in the park. The guests who will use these public bathrooms will be greeted with eyesores such as mildew, ants, stained shower pans, leaky faucets, spit wads, chipped paint and graffiti, to name a few. Many rooms at Sequoia and Kings Canyon do not meet some of the most basic standards, lacking telephones, locks on doors, windows, electric outlets, et cetera. What the GAO found in Sequoia and Kings Canyon is representative of a concessions program within the Department of Interior that lacks uniformity, consistency and accountability. The General Accounting Office looked at several other parks in addition to Sequoia and Kings Canyon and released a report of their evaluation of the National Park concessions program. The GAO questions the Department of Interiors hiring practices of the concession staff. It also criticizes the staggering backlog of expired contracts, the lack of incentives given to concessionaires to offer quality service, and it highlights the lack of accountability and direct supervision within the concessions program. This report is the focus of our hearing today. Issues addressed in the GAO report are of particular interest to me. I represent an area of...
