Not merely a seminary for the education of priests, but also a college where young men, boarders and day-scholars, were prepared for any of the intellectual avocations of the world. And there must have been good reason for this. In 1852, however, the Sulpitians resolved to discontinue St. Mary's College, which they had Conducted for SO many years with so much honor to themselves, and to confine their attention to the Seminary alone. A void was thus occasioned which the Society of Jesus was asked to fill. Accord ingly, until a suitable building should be erected, two private houses were rented on Holliday street, one door from the theatre, and just back of the odd-fellows Hall, on gay street; and there, September 15th, 1852, Loyola College was Opened, in Order to give, according to the metho ds Of the Jesuits,...
