The predictions are called prophecies. Prophecies are prophetic events of the Bible foretold to happen at the end of time or happen at the end of world history, as we know it. Did you know that our Bible is made up of about 30 of prophecy, and that it is a great history book? Did you know that many prophecies of Jesus are foretold in the Old Testament. Our journey now takes us back in time, into the present, and to the end of this age. Discover the biblical history of the rise and fall of Gentile kingdoms of the past, especially the world empires that had a direct influence on the people of God. In this series, we see Israel and Judah go into captivity. We meet Nebuchadnezzar, King of Babylon, Cyrus the Great, King of Medo-Persia, and Alexander the Great, King of Greece. Experience the long journey with Judah ruled by the Seleucid and Ptolemy Dynasties. See how Judah won their independence and later to be dominated again by Rome. Learn from Daniel the events that took place from his time into this present day, and to the future. Last, we will meet Esther, a Jewish woman who became queen of Persia and two great men who led the Jews home to their own land--Ezra and Nehemiah.
