This contingency was avoided by the timely arrival of Bros. J. Agnew and Frank Weber, who did good work then and thereafter during the day. Our guests came like grapes, in bunches, and let me tell you there is no sign of race suicide among elevator constructors, judging from the number of children, and they were not all there at that. In the rear of the grounds there is a variety of fruit trees, apple, pear, plum and peach. This was the Mecca for the small boy. What Kiddie can withstand the temptation of a small stick and green apples or pears I am sure some of our youngsters will need a dose of Mrs. Winslows Soothing Syrup or some other curative for their eagerness. The committee had promised a good time for everybody, old and young all day, eats, music, dancing...
