Mr. Jones has made the most of his materials, and the result is a volume of captivating and unusual interest. Among the illustrations appears a photographic reproduction of the famous railway newspaper, the Grand Trunk Weekly Herald, printed and circulated by Mr. Edison on Grand Trunk trains when he was a fourteenyear-old newsboy. Of course the more important of the Edison inventions and applications, especially in the field of electricity, are fully described, though for the most part in non-technical language. Since the publication of The Life and Letters of Phillips Brooks, by Prof. A. V. G. Allen, in 1900, an abridgment of that three-volume work has frequently been called for on the ground that many people who would like to know Phillips Brooks have not the time to read UK. WILLIAM E. DODD. so full a biography. To meet this demand...
