

Hezbollah in Iraq (Paperback)

By Brad Power

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Following Iran s apparent role in kick-starting the long-delayed formation of a government in Baghdad, Tehran is seen by many as the most influential external power in Iraq. While this may or may not be true, it is clear that Iran has a proven ability to commission violence inside Iraq. Yet while the covert programs run by the Iranian Revolutionary Guard Corps (IRGC) Qods Force is a source of influence in Iraq, paramilitary operations come at a cost. The militarization of Iranian influence is often counterproductive in Iraq, reinforcing Iraqis generally negative attitudes toward Iran. Tehran s concern about negative Iraqi perceptions of its paramilitary proxies has influenced the evolution of Iranian support to the so-called Special Groups of militant Shia diehards in Iraq.
