Gift Card Guy reads like the business version of Rocky vs. The Wolf of Wall Street in this new blockbuster book. In his debut book, Gary T. Dinkin, founder of the worlds largest closed loop self-hosted gift card software company chronicles his journey about becoming an entrepreneur. Often humiliating and downright painful his sincere accounts are frequently humorous, insightful and inspiring without sounding preachy. Dinkin is on a quest to help the underdog and would-be entrepreneur succeed and doesnt mind exposing himself in the process. Gift Card Guy is a Four-Star . . . Engaging Read. . . an education for any one with a desire to start a business. Gary Dinkin is nothing if not a born storyteller. . . The Fifty-Nine LIFE LESSONS Dinkin sprinkles throughout the text are what make the book particularly relevant to would-be entrepreneurs. . . everyone should find Gift Card Guy very enjoyable to read. Foreward Clarion Review Kirkus Reviews writes, A light breezy record of one entrepreneurs rise to fortune and the crazy ways of American business As Dinkin explains, There are no get-rich-quick strategies in my book just some life lessons that I learned the hard way. His life lessons in the book will inspire and encourage anyone to take that first step toward success and happiness or make sure they dont quit their day job. Dinkin became an entrepreneur to prove that he could accomplish anything he wanted, every time someone told him he couldnt. He is the owner of multiple companies including SmartClix, LLC (www.smartclixx.com) and is a sought-after speaker at industry events and an acknowledged expert in the software industry. He is a past winner of Transaction Worlds...
