About the usual number of tents adorned our bowery retreat, and about the usual number of friends lodged on the ground. Our congregations were large, attentive, and solemn. An excellent spirit, the hallowing spirit of love and of grace divine, pervaded the encampment from the first to the last. Peace and harmony reigned in all our borders. We have had many good meetings on this hallowed spot, but, for. the excellency of its spirit, never one better than the present. So say many dear brethren who have attended here from year to year. One of the aged fathers in the ministry, who had never been with ua in this grove before, but who had attended a great many similar meetings elsewhere, declared that although he had been present at larger meetings, he had...
