SCARBOROUGH THEN AND NOW

The History Press Ltd. Hardback Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Scarborough Then and Now, Colin Waters, Scarborough's history dates back to Roman and Viking times when invaders from overseas landed on the town's beaches. Well-to-do Victorians, invaders of a different kind, used the newly-created railways to flock to Scarborough to take the restorative waters, resulting in the town becoming Britain's first seaside resort. This fascinating volume captures the essence of the town and its people over the decades in a...
