Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Agitation of Slavery: Who Commenced, and Who Can End It!! Buchanan and Fillmore Compared From the Record He has an intense, often an hereditary contempt for the people. The Doughface has been a Federalist, a Whig, and a Know-Nothing never a Democrat. The Doughface has a high opinion of his own merits, and expects upon the success of his northern allies at the very least to be called to the head of a department or a foreign mission. He would, perhaps, compromise for an anonymous interest in a lucrative contract. It is he who prepares ambiguous declarations for northern candidates, which commit them to nothing in favor of the south, and do not impair their strength at the north. He tells you that, as some politicians never keep a pledge, it is wholly unnecessary to exact one from any. He will tell you that his confidential assurance of the intentions of his candidate is more worthy of credence than the recorded evidence of fidelity presented by his competitor. When General Taylor refused to say that he would veto a bill prohibiting the establishment of slavery in the federal Territories, he defended him as perfectly sound, because General Taylor owned several cotton plantations. When General Scott declined to express any opinion as to the power of Congress on the subject of slavery, the Doughface said it was perfectly true, because that hero had been born in Virginia, and was therefore incapable of taking an erroneous view of her interests. The Doughface now advises Mr. Fillmore to decide upon the great questions of the day!! See for yourself that Mr. Fillmore is perfectly...
