Aegypan. Paperback. Condition: New. 116 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. It is quite a journey from Jeannes bedroom down the long corridor, to the place fascinating to her since her babyhood: the room hung with tapestry -- very old, and in some parts faded, but still distinct. Jeanne sees something strange in one tapestry, of a garden. Didn't those peacocks move, ever so slightly? Then Dudu, the family's raven, is at the window -- but she just saw that decrepit old bird down on the terrace. Dudu cannot fly that fast! Now she hears wonderful news -- her cousin Hugh is coming to stay. He will be like a little brother -- and he will sleep in the tapestry room . . . No longer alone as a child in the great rambling old house, Jeanne has a friend with whom to pass the idle hours . . . and to explore her own home -- which proves far more magical than she knew! This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
