Xulon Press, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This is a book of prayers, poems, photographs, and walks through memory lane were inspired by God s many gifts and His creation of this beautiful earth. There are gifts and miracles all around us. We just need to open our eyes and see all that God has blessed us with. So as we wander through this life learning how to love each other and God more, we must also realize prayer is needed for more than our wish list. For every prayer is a celebration of God s miraculous love for us. Sometimes prayers are all we need to be reminded of how good God is, and how blessed we are to go through the challenges of life, coming out the other side. The book is just a small reminder of the fact that God can and does still deliver His People and we re not alone. I have seen God do incredible things. There s never a doubt that God protects, provides, and blesses. God is present from the feelings of His gentle kisses in the wind to embracing His smile in the fullest of the shining sun and the blessing of your children. True wanderers serve God where they are. This book was written to encourage other wanderers to praise God in every situation. Sybil E. Davis-Highdale was born in Florida and raised interdenominational. Faith has always been a part of her life. It takes faith in God to live the testimony she has. From watching her first murder at age eight, seeing her mother beaten, and sleeping with a knife every night the years waiting for the night she d kill her step-fater, dealing with abuses, death, racial hate,...
