Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Uncle Zenos Scene. - Interior of farmhouse, sitting room. Mrs. Zenos White seated with pan of apples in her lap, paring same. Uncle Zenos and his brother-in-law, Hiram [who is on a brief visit] seated before the fireplace, talking over the old days and smoking. Hiram. - Well Zenos, you seem to be pretty well fixed now, your children are having advantages you and I never had and I m glad of it. Zenos. - (With a sigh.) Yes Hiram, I m doin all I can for the children but I m worried over the boy; he s jest that age when he s gettin restless and don t like to stay home nights, he s down to the corner grocery evenins a listening to the talk down there an I m afeard taint a doin ov him any good; he says there aint no fun home with me and Ma and I suppose that s so; he says home aint half as interestin as tis down to Beale s store and Ma and me don t know what to do to attract him. What u d you do if he was your boy? Hiram. - (Poking his finger into his pipe slowly and thinking seriously.) Wall Zenos I ll tell you what I done about six months ago with my boy. He s sixteen now and had begun to pull at the bitt pooty strong, an I went to town and bought him a melodeon - one of them music things with treadles that you pump with your feet and draw the music from the ivry keys with both hands. Wall the boy took...
