Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Are you a professional, entrepreneur or small business owner who is looking for an effective lead generation method? Have you ever considered writing a book to promote yourself and your business but don't know how or where to start? If so this book was written for you. It was also written for those who may be asking the question why would I want to write a book? Publishing a book in your field gives you instant authority status which puts you above the crowd. People automatically perceive you as an expert because if you wrote a book on the subject then you must know something about it, right? Having your own book helps you to generate more leads; people read your book and contact you, no more chasing prospects. Publishing your own lead generation book will also help you close more deals, because again, you're the expert. Imagine the next time you're at an industry conference or networking event, you have a stack of books to handout while everyone else is passing out their usual stack of business cards. Can you imagine the possibilities and opportunities that a book can bring you? New clients, referrals, media attention, possible joint venture partners and more. How awesome would it be to get new clients because they found your book online while searching for a solution to their problem? This book guides you step by step through the process of having your book promoted by one of the biggest brands in the world: Amazon! Whether you choose to write and publish the book yourself, or hire professionals to help you get it done, now is the perfect time to publish...
