Scotland, so that in time coming she shall never come into your Grace s presence; and this, dearest brother, we, in our most heartily effectious tender manner beseeches your Grace to do, as we doubt not your wisdom will think to your honor, since our request is dear and tender tyll us, the gentlewoman s natural mother, and we, your natural sister, that makes this piteous and most hnmble request. Further, please your Grace, this bearer will inform, and the eternal God conserve your Grace, as we would be ourself. Written at Perth this 12th day of August, by your Grace s most loving systyr, Margaret R. The learned editor of this letter supposes that Queen Margarel Tudor has, by an error of her pen, meant to say, instead of by your Grace s advice, as quoted, it should stand, that against his advice Margaret had promised to marry Lord Thomas Howard, being the exact contrary to the sense she expresses. With this view, after examining the whole tenor of the antecedent and subsequent events, we can not agree. It is the belief of the author that the royal mother meant to express the fact which her words declare--it being in entire coincidence with the caprice, the deceit, and the utter falsehood of her brother s character and conduct. The Queen means simply to charge him with the base part he certainly played, of first encouraging the unfortunate young people to plight their...
