By Fraser, Caro.

Allison & Busby. 1 Paperback(s), 2013. soft. Book Condition: New. Now a QC at the eminent chambers of 5 Caper Court, Leo Davies has a big case on his hands, with Anthony Cross at his side, in this third Caper Court novel. Leo is representing investors who are desperate to claim back the fortune they unwittingly lost, staking everything on Leo's performance in court and unaware of the turmoil in his private life that could torpedo their case. The delicate façade of Leo's marriage to Rachel is crumbling, even as Anthony's burgeoning relationship with a colleague leaves Leo jealous at heart. But these distractions won't stop Leo from making a play for one of his clients, handsome TV celebrity Charles Beecham although Beecham's own interests may lie elsewhere. The daughter of George MacDonald Fraser (author of the Flashman books) and a former lawyer herself, Caro Fraser created the "smart, complex and deliciously racy" Caper Court series (Daily Record), based on her own experiences training to become a barrister. 414.
