Would you like to learn about a tool I use that allows me to manage my podcasting business with ease and achieve long term success in an industry where most people burn out quickly? Hi, my name is James Martell and I'm the host of the popular Podcasting Mastery podcast, broadcast weekly from the Secret Beach Hut Studio. I've been podcasting for 13 years and over that time I've learned the secrets of how to create a stress-free lifestyle business. To me, there are many advantages to developing a lifestyle business, and if you do it the right way you will spend less time actually doing business, more time enjoying your family, more time travelling, and more time doing all of the things that matter to you most. You can do this by focusing on strategies that develop both passive monthly income streams, and passive ways of developing new clients and customers for your business. So, with this in mind, let me introduce you to this booklet: Basecamp - The Smarter, Faster, and Easier Way to Manage a Successful Podcast. Now, you probably know me as the host of Podcasting Mastery, but what you may or may not be aware of is that I am also the host of the Affiliate Buzz, the first and longest running podcast in the affiliate marketing industry! We just released our 430th episode and celebrated our 13th anniversary for the show, and one of the things I am most proud of is our consistency in the publication of the ongoing episodes. In 13 years, I have missed only one episode per year on average! I credit this consistency to an associate of mine, Charles Johnston, who put a system in...
