MoshPit Publishing, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . THE PRICE OF EDEN is an entertaining blend of action, adventure and intrigue. Equico, a charitable organisation operating in northern Ecuador is plagued by theft, sabotage and ultimately murder. A work camp is attacked and all present are killed. Among the victims is a young Red Cross nurse. This act of the beast draws many others to the region. They include a Colonel of the Ecuadoran Army, a retired SAS Captain, a pretty opal dealer from Lightning Ridge and a former soldier, now struggling farmer, from Gloucestershire. They are all on a mission but now another beast also lurks in the shadows. It must be patient, play the game, tread softly among men but is barely contained and soon its time must surely come.
