

I Have Landed: The End of a Beginning in Natural History (Paperback)

By Stephen Jay Gould

HARVARD UNIVERSITY PRESS, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Reprint. Language: English . Brand New Book. Here is bestselling scientist Stephen Jay Gould's tenth and final collection based on his remarkable series for Natural History magazine--exactly 300 consecutive essays, with never a month missed, published from 1974 to 2001. Both an intellectually thrilling journey into the nature of scientific discovery and the most personal book he has ever published, I Have Landed marks the end of a significant chapter in the career of one of the most acclaimed and widely read scientists of our time. Gould writes about the themes that have defined his career, which his readers have come to expect and celebrate, casting new light upon them and conveying the ideas that science professionals exchange among themselves (minus the technical jargon). Here, of course, is Charles Darwin, from his centrality to any sound scientific education to little-known facts about his life. Gould touches on subjects as far-reaching and disparate as feathered dinosaurs, the scourge of syphilis and the frustration of the man who identified it, and Freud's evolutionary fantasy. He writes brilliantly of Nabokov's delicately crafted drawings of butterflies and the true meaning of biological...
