Giving the Dates of the Anniversaries Commemorated by the Ringing of the Columbian Liberty Bell There s a legend told of a far-off land - The land of a king - where the people planned To build them a bell that never should ring But to tell of the death or the birth of a king, Or proclaim an event, with its swinging slow, That could startle the nation to joy or woe. It was not to be builded - this bell that they planned - Of common ore dug from the breast of the land, But of metal first moulded by skill of all arts - Built of the treasures of fond human hearts. And from all o er the land like pilgrims they came, Each to cast in a burden, a mite in the flame. Of the furnace - his offering - to mingle and swell In the curious mass of this wonderful bell. Knights came in armor and flung in the shields That had warded off blows on the Saracen...
