L: Entitled a Vindication of the Religious and Civil Principles of the Irish Catholics; Addressed to His Excellency the Marquis Wellesley, K. G. Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland, C. C Dear Sir, As my object in the Remarks on the late Miracles wars to make Protestants aware of a solid and scriptural mode of defence against the pretensions of the Church of Rome, and if possible to excite the attention of Roman Catholics themselves to this boasted characteristic of their religion, as an evidence of its being the mystery of iniquity, I have now, on the coming out of a fourth edition in so short a time, to return you thanks for putting the public in possession of my thoughts in so cheap a form. So rapid and extensive a sale must gratify us both, from the prospect, that in so awful a time as the present, this little tract, being in the hands of so many thousands of our countrymen, may be of some use in arresting the progress of delusion. My first object, Sir, I trust, will ever be to serve the cause of divine truth. But another object I wish never to forget - the peace of the country and the maintenance of the happy constitution under which we live. Christians are little aware of their duty, or of their interest, who are indifferent to this object. The miracles which have of late excited so much attention, have undoubtedly a political, as well as a religious purpose; and are a part of an infernal machine which sooner or later will burst upon...
