Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Tribute in Rhyme to Theodore Roosevelt From an address at Detroit, Mich., May 18th, 1916: The working man, like the farmer and business man, must be a patriot first or he is unfit to live in America; and the first duty of all patriots is to see that we are able to prevent alien conquerors from dictating our home policies. No nation will ever attack a unified and prepared America. His Last Message In the fight for Americanism there must be no lagging back. From a speech delivered in Chicago in 1903: Speak softly and carry a big stick and you will go far. If the American nation will speak softly and yet build and keep at a pitch of the highest training a thoroughly efficient navy, the Monroe Doctrine will go far. From a lecture on the World Movement at the University of Berlin, May 12th, 1910: This world movement of civilization which is now felt throbbing in every corner of the globe, should bind the nations of the world together, while yet leaving unimpaired that love of country in the individual citizen which in the present stage of the world s progress is essential to the worlds well being. Some of his Popular expressions, which he originated and which have gone around the world: Speak softly and carry a big stick and you will go far. I am for the Square Deal. Fear God and take your own part. I have no patience with Mollycoddles and Pussyfooters. We stand at Armageddon and We Battle for the Lord. It is better to be Faithful than Famous. A message from Colonel Roosevelt, indicative of...
