Not illustrated. 1877 Excerpt: .only directed occasionally to the neighbouring nations, but it was given in trust to Israel for the world. The consciousness is not seldom bursting from the prophets that there is a mighty future in store for Israel. They knew that the covenant-God of Jacob would ultimately be acknowledged as th Lord of the whole earth. They promised that out of Zion should go forth the law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem; that he should judge among the nations, and should rebuke many people. Nor is it a slender confirmation of their truth that in. countries far distant, among alien races and languages of a different family, their message should have been accepted as the very word of God, and their honour should be as great as among the descendants of their own nation. It was, however, not only visions of glory that the...
