Bookshop Junkie Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand  Are you . Disenchanted with your current job? Contemplating a career change? Considering a dream gig? Experiencing mid-life frustrations? Planning to continue working in your later years whether you want to or have to ? Follow Your Enthusiasm: How 12 Ordinary Men Discovered Extraordinary Encore Careers, by Larry Portzline, features a dozen fascinating men of varying ages and backgrounds who launched satisfying second careers, some of them much later in life. Each of the book s 12 chapters is a first-person narrative of the guys own heartfelt stories, exploring their life experiences and challenges, and why these factors for good or bad led them to pursue successful encores. Their quests contain themes that most men will have no trouble relating to: job frustrations, forgotten dreams, family pressures, societal expectations, educational struggles, middle-age angst, twists of fate, and an unending desire for personal fulfillment. Through the example of these 12 intrepid gentlemen, the book encourages readers to take action and seek their own encore success stories. Here are the guys you ll meet in Follow Your Enthusiasm : Will Allen, a former pro basketball player and marketing rep who became an urban farmer in his 50s and started a non-profit to provide healthy foods to underserved populations in the Midwest. (Since then he was named one of Time s 100 Most Influential People, appeared in the documentary Fresh, and has twice been a guest at the White House.) Lee Attix, a salesman who took a gap year in his 40s and wound up as a wildlife researcher and loon expert in Maine. Warren Brown, a federal attorney who started the CakeLove bakery in Washington, DC and hosted the program Sugar Rush on...
