

Jesse Livermore - Boy Plunger: The Man Who Sold America Short in 1929 (Paperback)

By Tom Rubython

Myrtle Press, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Boy Plunger is the first full-length biography of the legendary share trader - Jesse Livermore, the man who dominated Wall Street in the twenties and thirties. To this day Livermore remains the most successful stock and commodities trader in the history of the stock market. Livermore became famous in the summer of 1929 when most people believed that the stock market would continue to rise forever. But he, almost alone, did not. Wall Street was enjoying an eight-year winning run that had seen the Dow Jones index increase 500 per cent from the start of the decade - an unprecedented rise. The Dow peaked at 381 on 3rd September and later that day the most respected economist of the era, Irving Fisher, declared that the rise was permanent. Livermore vigorously disagreed and started a process that would see him sell $450 million of shares short inside a four week period. Two weeks later, the market began falling and rising again on successive days for no apparent reason. This situation endured for a month. Then came, as he had forecast, the three black days: On Black Thursday...

READ ONLINE
[3.4 MB]

Reviews

This kind of pdf is almost everything and made me seeking forward and much more. It is actually packed with wisdom and knowledge You will not really feel monotony at whenever you want of your own time (that's what catalogs are for about when you question me).

-- Martina Maggio

It is great and fantastic. Sure, it is actually perform, nevertheless an amazing and interesting literature. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Ivy Hilll DDS