Morris, a present resident of Harlingen, Texas is on the verge of releasing a publication of her own originally written poetry that can serve as food to strengthen lives worldwide. This collection of Essie s creative writings should be classified in a literary world of its own! The usage of words in her poems published in this book, can touch hearts, souls, and minds everywhere! It is already being stated (even before the book is released by those who have had access to individual poems, that the total family, after reading these poems, will establish within themselves a declaration that poetry can be enriching for every age who takes a few minutes to read it. Poems found in POETIC PLEASURES covers a variety of subjects - from church to the little boy who had to beg his teacher to let him go pee. This is already being referred to as a pleasurable selection. It must be stated, that every poem in Essie s collection is based on people she has known, places she has been, and direct or indirect experiences she has has in her life of almost eighty years. By the writer being the product of a strong, christian home on a farm in western North Carolina;before attending Livinsstone college in Salisbury, N.C. with a BS Degree in Biological education; then on to Fisk University in Nashville, Tennessee where her first masters degree was received in the scientific field under sponsorship of the Nation Science Foundation; then on to an educational career teaching biology, chemistry, an physics in the public schools of North Carolina and Virginia and Texas; then Essie decided...
