MAKE TIME FOR HOMEWORK: A HOMEWORK TRACKING JOURNAL (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . As the new school year is finally underway, for many students, of all ages, completing homework assignments can be a daunting task. Homework assignments can be a major source of frustration and anxiety which may cause students to forget their homework assignments on a regular basis, or just not do the assignment at all. This can negatively affect the student's overall school performance and lower their grades. To ease your child's homework frustration and to stay on top of assigned work while assisting your child in completing their assignments, this Homework Tracking Journal is very helpful. Each subject can be tracked on its own page, along with special notes, things to do and reminders. There is also a space for extra credit weekend work if that is something your student is inclined to do to boost their grades. The Make Time for Homework Tracking Journal can also serve to assist parents in identifying subjects their students may be struggling with in order to get extra help they need to alleviate the problem. For the younger child, parents can work with teachers to help younger children with filling in the homework assignments. For older, more advanced students, this journal can travel with them from class to class so they can immediately write down the homework assignments thus eliminating the I forgot the homework assignment excuse. If teachers hand out printed homework assignments, the sheets can be attached to the corresponding week/subject giving the student the opportunity to fill in the journal later and not worry about losing the assignment sheet. The Make Time for Homework Tracking Journal can help parents and students end the homework battles and foster...
