To Life Bedside Prayers: Specially Compiled for Care Facilities Such as Hospitals, Nursing Homes, and Similar Facilities.

By Rabbi Shafir Lobb

Createspace. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 86 pages.

Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. A special bedside companion for people of any faith tradition who are in a care facility. There are sections for different times of the day as well as special prayers and meditations for events that might happen in a care facility such as medical procedures. There is also a section of anytime prayers and meditations. God language is gender neutral and inclusive. The prayers and meditations are applicable to both men and women. We hope you will find them inspiring and powerful. From the FOREWORD: The prayers in this book were written using gender neutral language with respect to both the individual praying and to God. I selected the different Names of the Divine according to the feeling of the prayer; I invite the reader to substitute a preferred Name as well as to modify any specific prayer to serve the need of the moment. The prayers were written from the point of view that the reader is the one praying. In my research for this book, I was surprised to learn that most prayers today are written in third person for the...
